M. H. Revolts Against Youth Pack

A critical teenage problem centering around a Monterey Heights malt shop appeared to be on the way to solution this week after aroused citizens in Monterey Heights held a Sunday afternoon mass meeting to consider steps to alleviate the "juvenile nuisance."

More than 35 fathers and mothers reacted violently to what Robert Buckner, 1496 Skyline Drive, called "promiscous, obscene, and vile activity" in the parking area of a Skyline Drive malt shop. The meeting was held at Buckner's home. "It is no longer safe for adults, let alone children, to go out after dark" Buckner said, "because of threats, insolence, and suggestive remarks being made by teenage ruffians who park in the area around the malt shop." Buckner has three children, ages 10, 5, and 10 months.

Russell Foster, 1490 Skyline Dr., Solar employee and father of children ages 10, 8, and 4, said "The boys and girls obviously come from other parts of San Diego and converge upon the malt shop after dark. They apparently wish to step across the city boundary to avoid city police interference," Foster said. "We have called sheriff's deputies but evidently a signalling system among the teenagers exists because they tear out two minutes before the sheriff's men come." Foster said the sheriff's department has been very cooperative.

Fear Reprisals

Charges that drinking, petting, and sexual acts have been observed were reported by eye witnesses, some of whom said they had not made prior reports because of fear of reprisals from the youth pack.

Mrs. Max Heyman, wife of a Convair electrician, mother of three children, said that teenage reprisals had occurred in other communities and she felt the threat was very real. "The nuisance has become so bad, however," she said, "that we must now take a chance on reprisals."

Mrs. C. R. Yokley, 7897 Sanford, mother of a 13 year old youth, told of being frightened by a teenager jumping from behind a hedge in her yard one night. "Luckily there were four women in our group," she said. "The youth insisted on staying in the hedge until 'it's safe to go back' (to the malt shop)."

Buck Johnson, 1400 Skyline Dr., Convair employee, father of two, complained of "noise and unwholesome atmosphere" as a result of convergence of the teenagers, but warned against citizens taking the law in their hands. "The proprietors of the place attracting these youths must cooperate," he demanded.

Proprietors Present

The proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hedrick, were present and complained that they needed to earn a living to support their own children and could not afford to reject business of the teenage group "as long as they behaved within the shop." They disclaimed responsibility for activity in the parking area.

The Hedricks purchased the shop in January and said they had never called the police. They admitted that fights had occurred in the vicinity of the shop. Hedrick agreed that he "could not put up with the noise" if he were a resident of the neighborhood.

Mrs. James Carlyle, wife of a Navy man, said that "Even sailors at Naval Training Center listed the shop as a hot spot." She has a 15 year old daughter.

Mrs. L. F. Stevens, 1708 Colfax, mother of two girls, reported she had observed 13 and 14 year old girls smoking cigarettes in autos parked adjacent the shop.

E. R. Varley, 7870 Sanford, a Navy man with three children, said that he had found youngsters inside the shop to be "surly."

D. H. Gownes, 7895 Lansing, Convair employee, father of three, complained that "Necking and other displays of affection" take place daily in the parking area as early as 4 p.m.

Reason Wanted

R. W. Nevegold, 1770 Dupont, parent of a ten year old daughter, demanded to know "what" attracted the juveniles to this "place."

William McLen, former Marine of 1575 Skyline Dr., said that his two children had been insulted by youths in cars at the shop. "This is our community," he said, "we cannot allow malicious teenagers to ruin it."

John Bridger, 8901 Canton Dr., former operator of a grocery next to the malt shop, said that his wife always received walf calls when she ventured out of the store. He also reported seeing "promiscuous necking." He has an 11 year old son.

Mrs. Arthur Berry, 1600 Skyline, reported a fistfight between teenage girls in which a neighborhood girl suffered a black eye.

Eleven Juveniles Seized in Monterey Heights

By DICK HENDERSON

"Eleven juveniles ranging in age from 13 to 17, were placed in juvenile hall Friday night for violation of curfew and disturbing the people, sheriff's deputies reported yesterday.

"The juveniles, five girls and six boys, were picked up outside a malt shop at 1503 Skyline Drive, Monterey Heights, at 10:45 p.m. by deputies J. M. Moore and L. L. Narron."

The above clip from a San Diego paper was handed me by the boss with a request to investigate, and on Tuesday I visited the establishment at 1503 Skyline Drive, which is a block north of Jamacha Road.

Introducing myself to the proprietor of F & J Sundries, the name of the establishment, which was purchased two months ago by Floyd and Jean Hedrick, I asked him about the arrests and showed him the clipping quoted above.

Mr. Hedrick, a clean-cut young man, said he had been present at the time the officers made the arrests, and had been told then than there was no disturbance, no liquor of any kind. The young folks were starting for their homes and were grouped outside. One of the girls had done some dancing, by herself, and there was nothing to justify a call to their office.

This was about 3:30 p.m. and as I was ready to leave several girls, aged about 15, came in, and Mr. Hedrick called two of the late arrivals over and introduced me.

The two girls I talked to were pretty, spoke nicely. One volunteered "I was the girl dancing." The other girl said she knew it was after curfew and she had been talking to two boys in a car, and they had agreed to take her home.

She said the officials treated them nicely at juvenile hall, but she thought they should not have acted as though the girls had done something really bad. Her parents were notified by phone, and had come for her the next morning. Her father said she could not go to "Sundries" at night any more.

"What are we going to do? No place to go evenings."

Mr. Hedrick explained that the people he bought the store from had had a different clientele, and most of the young folks who had patronized the place had found another gathering place.

There is a large vacant lot next to "Sundries" where a different crowd of youngsters had gathered the Saturday night before, and they had been noisy, but he had not gone outside, nor had any of the crowd come into his store. He hoped that any neighbor who had called the officers would investigate before reporting his place as disorderly in future. "They seem to have it in for this place."

If I have gone into this incident more than seems necessary, it is because the young folks I talked to seemed to have something in their favor.

Could not some place in Monterey Heights be found where the young people could meet? Possibly a club, suitably sponsored, would be the solution.

"What can we do?" The question still runs through my mind.

It seems to be a problem that is facing the country. It seems to me that there is a difference between young people gathering for a coke and social chat and the "delinquents," armed with knives and clubs, who battle.

I asked a sheriff's deputy what happened to these youngsters who stayed out after curfew, and if any stigma attached to their arrest and detention. He said "No, but a record is kept and if the offense is repeated too often, some action is taken."

It looks as though the young folks will have to obey the curfew law or get into trouble. Won't some person wiser than I offer a solution?—D. H.

Grove Gets National Attention Via 1956 Rodeo and Fiesta

Plans for the 1956 Rodeo were rounded out at a joint breakfast meeting of the Lemon Grove Jaycees and Chamber of Commerce last week.

The group, which plans the two day rodeo on July 21 and 22 at St. John of the Cross Church Rodeo Grounds, were told that the event is already receiving nationwide publicity through the S. D. Convention and Tourist Bureau as a result of the rodeo being fitted into the S. D. County-wide Fiesta del Pacifico program of events. A local fiesta will be held on the church grounds in conjunction with the rodeo. This will be sponsored by the Men's Group of St. John of the Cross Church. The church group had been staging the rodeo as well as the local fiesta in past years but in 1955 they decided to relinquish the rodeo event to the community as a civic project. Last year it was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Because of the work involved, the newly formed Jaycees were asked to join in staging the event.

Jaycee president Tom Smith said that a huge square dance event would be held during rodeo week and this event will be statewide in scope.

A "buckboard" with public address equipment will tour the county soon, advertising the event, Smith said.

Bruce Harms, chamber president, said a team of men to drive the horse-drawn rig would be supplied from ranks of the senior organization.

Western garb will be required of all persons taking part in the July affair, Smith said. Jaycees will distribute "ten gallon" hats among local residents for the rodeo. They will be the throw-away type and sell for less than one dollar, Smith said.

A parade will wind down the main streets of Lemon Grove on July 21.

Another rodeo meeting has been scheduled for April 19.

FIRE DEPARTMENT BUSY!

Fire Doused at Avalon Cafe

Lemon Grove Fire Department had a busy weekend, reported Fire Chief Harold Hensley.

Fire, which apparently originated among old rags and papers in a food storage room of the Avalon Cafe, 3307 Imperial, was quickly brought under control Sunday.

Damages, estimated at $1,500, resulted to the structure and foodstuff stored in the room. Cause of the fire was unknown. William McQueen operates the cafe.

A four year old Linda Vista youth collapsed in Haizlip's Drug Store at the corner on Imperial and Broadway Sunday and the fire department responded with their resuscitator. The boy, Greg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schwieder of Linda Vista, responded to treatment.

Deputy Sheriff Don Bryan, who also responded to the call, said that the nurse in the La Mesa Hospital reported the boy had a temperature of 105 degrees and that administering of oxygen by the fire department had undoubtedly saved the boy's life.

The department also responded to a call on Orange Place when three year old Leah Adams, 2960 Orange Place, got her foot caught in the sprocket of a bike she was riding. Treatment was administered by Dr. Thayer Crow, fire department doctor.

Men's Club Interest Turns to Vocational Guidance for High School Youths

Lemon Grove Men's Club will view a possible solution to one of the teenage problems Friday when a panel of experts discusses the high school system's vocational responsibility.

Last week Ralph Luckenbach, assistant engineer of the state division of highways, told of the progress of the Lemon Grove freeway which is near the halfway completion mark.

He said that frontal roads in the Lemon Grove area had been widened from 20' feet to 32 because Roy Nielsen, a local real estate man and former engineer, had interceded in the road width plans.

The Men's Club meets every Friday at noon at Michael's and all men are invited to attend.

Directories are Being Distributed

First copies of the 12 page Homeland Directory went into the mail last week and all Lemon Grove residents will receive a copy.

Several months of work and planning went into the project and it contains emergency and street information about the area as well as information about local business people and firms.

A new street map of Lemon Grove was made specially for the directory and it is as up-to-date as present county records.

Information on where to get it and how to get in touch with business firms by phone makes up an important part of this book.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

A dirty dope "pusher" finally got a certain young man to start taking an occasional "pop" of heroin, much to the disgust of a particular lady of easy virtue and her consort, who is boss of an underworld "syndicate." It must certainly also distress many Lemon Grove mothers, fathers and their children.

The forces of the law finally came into play when this young, newly converted "H" user stuck a knife into the back of the town's mendicant, a kindly, harmless old man who peddled trinkets to earn his daily bread. This was done for money to buy another "pop" of "H."

You may think you don't recognize this crime, nor the characters in it, but you and your kids are eyewitnesses to this interesting bit of modern crime through the medium of your daily and Sunday newspapers under the comic strip title of "Little Orphan Annie," the latter being as savvy a little babe as you'd ever want to meet.

I am not about to edit someone else's newspaper, there being enough trouble in this office trying to edit my own, but Annie sometimes oversteps the bounds of comic strip propriety, in my opinion, and this, among other things, begs for a little closer examination of antics of a single day's activities among the pen-and-India-ink set of a daily newspaper comic page.

The current Tracy series shows a couple of teenagers outsmarting a policewoman in a huge pickle vat while one of the young fiends, who seems to be pictured to represent a deviate, swears he'll "killem."

Brenda Starr, female reporter, is mixed up with a pack of teenage blonde girls who brutally beat anyone who crossed them.

Rip Kirby is in the midst of a caper in which a pseudo-father of a beauteous babe (19, if she's a day) threatens to do her in but keeps an eye on Kirby whom he will deal with as soon as he's had his way with the girl.

Judge Parker is in the toils of seeing justice done to a psychotic prisoner who was apprehended when the psychotic one forced his way into the judge's home, killed a cop while foisting his attention on Parker's attractive young daughter.

The new chapter in Mary Worth's column shows an elderly, staid pillar of society bringing home a new, young and pretty wife. Scenes show the sweet thing clad in shorty gown or pajamas, or a stimulating facsimile.

Steve Roper is being pursued by a show girl who gives him a foreign made car to attract his attention. (A girl once gave me a sack of jelly beans, so I know how you feel, Roper.)

Even the modest Dagwood column shows him in his bathtub being viewed by female and male members of some sort of community organization.

Gordo has lost his burro to a couple of mulenappers; and Charlie, the sex boat male of Abbie and Slats fame, is being practically smootched to death by lovely females who are buying his favors for $2 a night. His services include hand-holding, park sitting, and the big sacrifice, kissing.

Lila, who has been permanently blinded by Neil, the spoiled son of a wealthy father, is in a hospital learning to become "normal" again in Dr. Rex Morgan strip.

The old stand-by, Gasoline Alley, has the aged bachelor Ambrose being taken in by the young streamlined female tax consultant, his salvation being only the sound advice of Walt Wallet, one of the strip's main characters.

These frightening things surprise no comic strip addict. Youngsters from the reader age of six or seven up fret and worry about the outcome of their favorites like in the Orphan Annie strip.

More intelligent people than myself must tell you whether these things are good or bad for the coming generation. I have my own opinion and the popularity of the strips proves that I am not on the side of the majority.

By the time my youngsters reach teenage I suspect that they will be inured to consideration of dope-using youngsters, cop-killing youths, mentally disturbed citizens, and fun loving murderers. Maybe it's best they should get their crime knowledge through the funny pages of our newspapers.

Hufbauer Named Architect for New School on Palm Street

The Lemon Grove School Board approved plans this week with Clyde Hufbauer, architect, to submit preliminary drafts for a new school for the district. These plans will be submitted with a state application for funds to construct a sixth school here. Hufbauer explained master plans for the plant to be built on the West property which was purchased some time ago.

The school will house elementary and junior high students, with long-range plans for complete junior high facilities. Limited facilities will prevail when construction is first completed, but students will be offered full educational opportunities as a result of the additional construction.

The West property is located east of Washington between Palm and Mt. Vernon Streets. No immediate construction is planned since the application must be cleared through various agencies when state building funds are involved.

The board made final acceptance of four new classrooms at the San Miguel School. These rooms will help ease the heavy classload expected from a large fall enrollment. They will be placed in use in September.

Approval of sale of tickets for the Talent Show sponsored by the Youth Center committee was given. A limited number of students will be permitted to sell them in the school. The show, scheduled for the junior high auditorium on April 27, will raise funds for the Youth Center and thus aid children of the community through the activities it can offer. The board tabled discussion of a district warehouse planned for the Education Center site when it became apparent that funds were not available at present.

The next meeting of the board will be at the Monterey Heights School on Monday evening, April 23. At that time the teachers of that school will present a demonstration of classroom units and activities.

CONSULTANTS CUT TIME-CONSUMING CALCULATIONS

Attorney W. H. Jennings, staff consultant on waterworks matters, asked that the following paragraph be printed. He wants to know what it means, and if he can get one.

Speaking about Dr. Sheldon L. Levy—no relation of Rube—the paragraph says:

"He has done extensive investigation of solid state physical phenomena by measurement of the atenuation of pulsed ultrason. He is an authority on wave propagation inanisotropic elastic media, ferromagnetism and material stress analysis."

It seems that a machine has been developed that does this calculating and gets the right answers, so that an engineer can determine the best locations for pipelines, without having to use his pencil. Too high in mathematics for me.—D. H.

Mrs. Mason's room won the room count and the first grade mothers were hostesses.

MONTEREY HEIGHTS REVOLTS

"She still has it, although the fight occurred four weeks ago." The girl had some of her clothes ripped off in the fracas, she reported.

Max Garrison, 1510 Skyline Dr., father of two teenage boys, said "The noise is unbearable" and that none of his family would venture out after dark because of "fear of these hoodlums."

Mrs. Ronald Waltz, 1391 Skyline Dr., said that "loud and boisterous noises continued almost daily till 10:30 p.m."

Misconduct Visible

Otto Barnhardt, 1411 Skyline Dr., reported fighting and evidenced a fear of reprisals from hoodlums. "I can personally observe sexual misconduct in the field behind the shop from my window anytime the teenage group converges upon the neighborhood," he stated.

Ralph Nelson, 1570 Skyline Dr., father of two teenagers, reported that vulgar remarks had been made to his children. "They seemed mostly to resent a Helix sweater worn by my daughter."

Mrs. Homer Blalock, 1718 Dupont, said her 15 year old daughter frequents the shop. She had heard no complaints but she said she was going to double check her daughter's activities.

Dale Cummins, 1380 Skyline Dr., a 20 year old State College student, said he thought most of the youngsters came from the area of Lincoln High School. "Their cars have 'pipes' and the 'backraps' are loud when they pass our house," he reported.

Drag Races on Skyline

Joan Lewis, also 20, 7933 Lansing, an employee of Kelsey-Jenney, reported seeing an auto containing six Spanish appearing boys, together with several girls, drinking liquor in the shop's parking area. "They also run drag races up Skyline Drive," she complained.

Foster called upon the Hedricks to "Put a stop to the nuisance," and recommended that the juke box be removed as a first step to breaking up the gang.

Other neighbors offered to contribute the $60 or $70 a month Hedrick says he nets from his juke box, if he would take it out.

The Hedricks made a compromise offer to close their shop at 8 p.m. nightly, but intended to keep the juke box.

Another meeting, this one under the sponsorship of the Monterey Heights Civic Club, will take up further study of the problem, Foster said. Date will be announced later.

5-Year-Old Boy Found Next Door After 7-Hour Search

Thomas Chapman, five years old, is cared for by Mrs. I. D. Williams of 1540 Skyline Drive. The lad's parents are separated, and county welfare funds pay for his keep. Mrs. Williams has another little child, a girl of three, to care for, and a daughter, 13. The children get along well and Thomas has the run of the street. All the neighbors know and like him.

The little lad is welcome at the next door neighbor's, and visits there almost daily. On Friday last Tommy was missed about 5:15 p.m., and repeated calls were not answered. A hurried search of the neighborhood failed to find him. By that time, Mrs. Williams was frantic, called the sheriff's office and seven deputies and two San Diego policemen responded. The officers, aided by many neighbors, searched the surrounding area for seven hours, finally gave up. A neighbor, returning from the hunt, spied the youngster sitting under a tree in the yard next door to his foster home.

Mrs. Williams, when interviewed by phone Saturday evening, said she was too happy to find the boy to think of punishing him. This in response to a question by the reporter. Tommy made no explanation for not answering the repeated calls, said he heard 'em and watched the people hunting for him. "How he could sit under that tree for seven hours is a mystery," Mrs. Williams said.

We asked Pearl—she is our sweet wife—what she would have done to the lad as punishment. She said "Deprive him of something he likes, tv or a movie, but no hairbrush." This reporter thought a good spanking would have been in order had he been the culprit.

Mrs. Williams says she will have to devise some means of keeping the boy at home, but she has not decided. We suggested putting him on a stake rope.

We know how she feels 'cause when our little dog Perky got away we were so glad to find him that we never punished him, except once when he got into a fight with another dog, and wouldn't let go.—D. H.

GAC-Hamid Inc., of New York, will produce the free grandstand shows at the Southern California Exposition and County Fair at Del Mar, July 4 through the 8th. The exposition opens June 29.

SALK VACCINE IS IN SHORT SUPPLY AT PRESENT

The March edition of San Diego's Health, prepared by San Diego Department of Public Health, is interesting to parents, in that it reports that last year San Diego County had an all-time low over-all death rate. We also reached a new low in the tuberculosis death rate and saw a continued decline in diphtheria without a death reported since 1947.

Last April San Diego County became the world's first community to offer mass inoculation with Salk vaccine to all first and second grade school children. Some 250 members of the medical society volunteered their time for this inoculation. Without their help this project would not have been possible.

Strep Cases Increase

During the past two months there has been an increase in San Diego County in the reported cases of scarlet fever and other streptococcal infections of the throat. The rest of California is also having a similar rise in reported cases.

Although most people are familiar with scarlet fever, many do not realize that scarlet fever, scarlatina, streptococcal sore throat and "septic sore throat" are all essentially the same disease.

Salk Vaccine Limited

Because of the shortage in the supply of Salk poliomyelitis vaccine throughout the nation, the public supply of vaccine distributed by this department will be limited to the first two injections for any eligible person. Vaccine for the third or booster injection will not be available from the public supply until further notice.

This limitation is being made at the recommendation of Surgeon General Scheele so that as many children as possible may have the protection of two injections before summer. As soon as the supply of Salk vaccine is equal to the demand, these and other restrictions will be lifted.

The most recent supply of 10,000 cc. of public vaccine received by the department was exhausted three days after it arrived. As soon as supplies of the vaccine are received, announcement is made through the press.

New Medical Building

The public will get its first look at the new Medical Society Building at 3427 Fourth Avenue on Sunday afternoon, April 8, at a joint open house with the Blood Bank next door.

The building houses the Medical Society executive offices, Doctors' Service Bureau and the second largest medical library on the West Coast sponsored by a medical society. San Diego County Medical Society has more than doubled in the last ten years, and now has 775 members.

J. B. Askew, M. D., director of public health, is health officer for San Diego City and County. All of the statements in above article were taken from the March issue of San Diego's HEALTH.—D. H.

Lubbock, Texas—C. F. Wilson, who started hiccuping shortly after lunch on August 2, is now hiccuping several times a minute. This is the second time Wilson, 69, has been stricken with a seige of hiccuping. The first was 29 years ago. That time they lasted only seven days.

Mrs. Charles Goode Files for High School Board Seat

Mrs. Charles Goode, Fletcher Hills area resident, filed a petition this week as candidate for the Grossmont High School District trustee. She is the only woman candidate to date. Filing date limit is 30 days before the May 18 election.

Two seats will be available. They are currently held by Les Freeman, city clerk of La Mesa, and Charles Irwin, men's store operator of the same city.

Mrs. Goode reports that she has been urged to file by a long list of persons active in school matters. Local supporter is Mrs. John Dail.

American Association of University Women, La Mesa branch, is sponsoring Mrs. Goode, who holds a degree in business administration and has had training in law; was administrative assistant to the president of a national organization; was president of Grossmont PTA and is mother of a Grossmont senior.

She was a representative at the governor's committee on education in Sacramento and helped organize the Town Meetings for Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency. She is currently high school service chairman for the Ninth District PTA.

Examinations will be given for the position at two levels. Supervisor-Counselor I, paying $325-$395, requires two years of experience as recreation or athletic director, teacher, vocational counselor, graduate nurse, social worker, house mother or group supervisor, plus two years of college. Five Children Made Orphans By Wreck Adopted By Bonita Couple

A couple, residents of Bonita, near Chula Vista) with two children of their own, have adopted the five children who were orphaned by the wreck of a Santa Fe train in Los Angeles a short time ago. Both parents were killed in the wreck, leaving their five children homeless.

This Bonita couple discussed the adoption of one of the children, decided that would break up the family, said "Let's adopt all five."

An addition to the already large home was built and now this couple has seven children, seven horses, seven beef cattle, four dogs, and a couple of cats, and a very happy family.

Please note:

Adoption proceedings are top secret, names are never revealed except on court order. Only court officers have access to the records, hence no names are mentioned in this story. It is heart-warming at this time to realize that a couple, happily with ample means, would voluntarily assume the burden of five children, giving the orphans all the advantages that their own children will receive.—D. SECOND ANNUAL FROG-JUMPING CONTEST TO BE FOR CANCER FUNDS

Husky frogs, not the "in-the-throat" variety, but those with delicious hind quarters, will be employed by the San Dieguito Jr. Chamber of Commerce in its drive for American Cancer Society funds, Sunday, April 29.

The event is the official second annual Southern California jumping frog preliminaries to be held in the paddock arena at the exposition grounds, Del Mar. Junior and senior competition will be held, said Dale Fowler, chief frog commissioner. The three top frogs from each division will be flown to the International Frog Olympics at Angels Camp, Calif., in May, all expenses paid (for the frogs only.)

Last year, Copperhead, a bug-eyed croaker, entered by Donna Lapham, 12, Solana Beach, turned in the best effort of the day with a jump of 12'5¾". At Angels Camp, however, it barely got out of the starting circle.

Square Dance News

Square Eighters

On March 28 the Square Eighters held a potluck dinner preceding their installation dance. The Legion Hall was decorated in an Easter theme and the tables each had a beautiful array of assorted flowers, some of which were calla lillies painted in pastel shades. Nadine Maczko should be given credit for the flowers.

Music for the dance was supplied by the H & H Tunetwisters. Pete and Helen Mighetto were in rare form and were assisted by the following guest callers: Dot and Jack Wiebe, Spence Spencer, Al Lindsley, Gladys Rongey and Clarence Montgomery.

A canned ham was raffled and Spence Spencer was the lucky winner. Door prizes were won by Claudia Ethridge and Ed Hopper.

The Square Eighter Taws wore their club dresses for the first time which were made of white georgette and black velvet trim with square eights made of sequins on the lower tier. Many compliments were passed on the dresses.

Hosting for the evening were Eleanor and Carl Holmes, Irene and John Emerick, Marge and Lee Shipherd, Nadine and Eddie Maczko and Thelma and Herb Meyer.

LEVIS AND LACES NEWS

With an eye toward spring, Levis and Laces held their regular party night dance on Saturday, April 7. A good crowd of dancers spent an enjoyable evening, dancing to the calling of Clarence Montgomery, along with Roy Close, Johnnie Fisher and Bill Ott.

The stage and mantle were attractively decorated with a picket fence and artificial spring flowers by Bob and Georganna Weeks and their fine committee. Hot ham salad sandwiches, potato chips and coffee were served at the close of the dance.

A showing of unique square dance togs for women was presented at intermission by Mildred Dericks, Georganna Weeks, Anne Ott, Pat Andrews and Audrey Carter, with a prize going to Audrey Carter for her outstanding costume—one which advertised a coming Heartland event—a square dance to be held aboard the aircraft carrier Kearsarge in June.

Clarence will be calling for the Junior Woman's Club benefit square dance on Friday night at the Woman's Clubhouse, and also for the annual Lemon Grove Swimming Pool benefit dance to be held in May at St. John's Church.

The Levis and Laces beginner's square dance class that meets on Monday nights will be held open for membership for one more week.

Water Works to Hire Deserving Youths During Vacation

All members of the waterworks board except Joe Levikov gathered 'round the table last Thursday and discussed matters pertaining to the successful operation of the works.

Attorney Jennings, when asked where he was the week before, said "Chicago, Ill. They don't have any water problems there."

The boys have several problems hereabouts, however, with new pipelines and moving pipelines for freeways and new customers to be supplied and what not. The customers want more and larger meters and each request for a larger meter means study as to how it will affect the next man on the line.

W. C. (Bill) Koppel, foreman in charge of El Capitan Pumping Plant, received his 35 year service pin. That pin represents a lot of work on Bill's part, and the remarks of appreciation by President Rube Levy were heartily approved by other members of the board.

Warrants in the amount of $50,846.17 were approved. Carl Mehl, treasurer, drew $39,380.72, various others drew the balance.

Resolution adopted removing 130 parcels of real property acquired by the State of California for highway purposes, from the district's rolls.

Secretary directed to publish notice inviting sealed proposals for $5,230,000 bonds of the district. Bid opening date: 3 p.m. May 1. This item of interest to bankers only.

Discussion of advisability of employing four or five high school boys in need of economic assistance during vacation. Boys to be those recommended by the school.

Lemon Grove got into the act when Rio Mutual matter was under consideration. Attorney Jennings remarked that the Rio Mutual was made up of the different boards of Lakeside Mutual, Riverview Mutual et al, and they each held to the arguments that they have been used for years. Just like La Mesa and Spring Valley and Lemon Grove. Harry Griffen smiled, said, "Well, we finally get in, hey Dick?" That was the only mention Lemon Grove got. It was past 12 o'clock and when Rube Levy left we bowed out also, so that is all we know about the meeting.—D. H.

There are 12 candidates for the position. The committee is set up to hold the party together, according to Keith. Election will be June 5.

Keith has been in Spring Valley for about eight months, and has lived in the San Diego area since 1942. He is in the construction business.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Since you are printing letters pro and con re inspections, I want to tell you about one I made last week, and see what you think should be done.

I got a tip that there was something wrong with the electric wiring at 3565 Harris street, with three electric meters hanging on the wall, outside, all three connected to one pair of lead-in wires, and two of the wires from the meter lying on the ground. So I went down, met Mrs. Dickey, the owner and occupant of 3565, asked her about the situation.

Mrs. Dickey said they had come to Lemon Grove from Imperial Valley some time ago, had difficulty in renting a place to live, finally located their present quarters. Rent of the house was set at $75 per month, but if they bought the place the payments would be $57 per month. So they borrowed $250 for down payment and moved in, contracting to pay $5300 for the place, which was one of three houses on the lot. Another house on the property, 7371 North, was sold about the same time, the meter for this house being another of the three meters on the Dickey property.

The third meter, furnishing juice to 3559½ Harris, still belongs to the owner and is rented to a lady who is pregnant. The landlord and his wife are away on a trip, present whereabouts unknown, and the tenant says nobody has come for the rent. It is the line from Dickey's house to 3559½ that is or was lying on the ground and which the Dickeys raised on a flimsy pole, so the kids wouldn't get entangled.

Mrs. Dickey has considerable washing to do for her two boys and husband, and needs considerable drying line, and as she is rather short and crippled, dodging this live wire and putting clothes on the line is a chore.

Mrs. Dickey was crippled lifting a heavy object when she was a child and both her hip joints were thrown out. She did not receive proper medical attention at the time, so she has been crippled and walks with difficulty, but she is cheerful with it all.

Recently, when an inspection revealed that new wiring in the Dickey house was required and a separate meter installed, the Dickeys borrowed $250 to pay the cost of connection and re-wiring, but when they got an electrician to estimate the job, found that all three meters would have to be changed before the work could be done.

So now the Dickeys are waiting for the landlord of 3559½ to do his part, and no one to represent him. Mrs. Dickey is worried about the tenant, who is pregnant. "I don't want that woman to be without lights in her condition," she says.

Meantime, the Dickeys have three meters hanging on the side of their house.

The wires to the three meters are tangled and present a fire hazard. There are three notices from the electric company posted by the meters, but it seems that the three places will have to arrange with the company before anything can de done.

Now, editor, if this seems tangled to you, you should see the way it looks. Can you do anything with the inspector, or the electric company, or anybody?

Yours in a daze,
Dick Henderson

P. S. I think Mr. Lucy has seen this mixed-up meter situation, but has said he can't inspect anything officially until the new meters are in and placed where they belong.

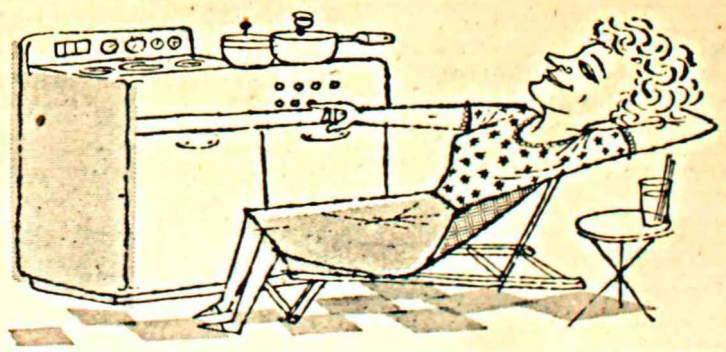
THEY'LL TELL YOU WHY THEY'RE CHANGING TO



ELECTRIC COOKING

All over this area, more and more of your neighbors are changing — changing from the old fashioned way to modern-day electric cooking.

Ask your neighbors, and they'll tell you why. Chances are, they'll say they changed because electric cooking is faster . . . because it's cleaner . . . because it's easier to control . . . because the operating cost is low and the efficiency is high. And they're sure to point out many, many more of the advantages of electric cooking.

So . . . ask your neighbors. Or, better still, find out for yourself. See your appliance dealer now and ask him to demonstrate all the wonderful things an electric range can do for you.

NEW BRICK PLANT UNVEILED BY HAZARD PRODUCTS

San Diego newspaper publishers were guests at the unveiling of a new ½ million dollar brick plant at Cabrillo Freeway and Friars Road last week.

The plant, capable of turning out nearly 40,000 bricks per day, is the property of Hazard Products, Inc.

Host was Bruce Hazard, president of the firm, who conducted a tour for a score of newspapermen.

The plant is almost entirely automatic and huge conveyor belts do the job that would otherwise require a big crew of men. From the stockpile of Miramar clay to which certain elements are added, the material is hammered, vibrated, and scored as it moves along the conveyor. As it is compacted, a multi-blade cutting device drops on the moving mass and slices it into brick size pieces.

Conveyors transport these pieces to the kiln area where bricks are stacked on small rail cars and are moved slowly but ceaselessly through the drying-hardening-cooling process. The kiln is 325 feet long and the moving cars are subjected to dehumidified air, then intense gas heat which brings the bricks to a cherry red hot hue, and finally an air-cooling process.

Bricks emerge from the kiln ready for culling and delivery. Bricks, Hazard said, are worth about $50 per 1,000, which means the kiln grinds out about $2,000 worth of the product a day.

Get-rich-quick schemes multiply faster than the supply of suckers.

LOCAL WOMAN TO EXHIBIT PAINTINGS

An awards luncheon will be held at Cafe del Rey Moro, House of Hospitality, on April 25 at noon.

AT-ONE-MENT WITH GOD STRESSED IN LESSON-SERMON

Atonement is seen as bringing out at-one-ment with God in the Lesson-Sermon "Doctrine of Atonement" read in Christian Science churches Sunday.

The Golden Text for the service is, "God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved" (John 3:17).

Final Days for Free Chestmobile Service

Residents of the Lemon Grove area will have a final opportunity to have chest X-rays taken at the Chestmobile this Thursday and Friday. These are the last two days the X-ray unit will be stationed in La Mesa on Spring Street at La Mesa Boulevard.

Scheduled hours on Thursday (today) are 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday hours, arranged for the convenience of working people, are 2 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of the San Diego Department of Public Health, said yesterday that periodic chest X-rays are an important safeguard to the health of the adult population of the county. He pointed out that X-rays can reveal the presence of the disease long before a person may feel ill. Early detection of TB, he added, can lead to an early cure.

One of the reasons for the decrease in tuberculosis in recent years, Dr. Askew said, has been the early discovery of TB by chest X-ray surveys.

Persons unable to have chest X-rays taken at the Chestmobile may avail themselves of the same public service at the TB clinic of the public health department at 524 West G Street in San Diego, Dr. Askew said. Clinic hours are 10 a.m. to noon, Mondays through Fridays, and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays.

Dr. Askew urged men, particularly men over 45 years of age, to have their chests X-rayed. He said that of 332 new cases of tuberculosis found in the county a year ago, 198 were among men and 134 among women. Of the 198 cases found in men, Dr. Askew said 120 were in the age group over 45 years of age. Of the 134 found in women, 72 were in the age group between 25 and 44.

Nominee for Woman's Club Federation Presidency To Be Presented Locally

The Garden Section of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club will present Mrs. Alice Sinclair, nominee for office of the president of California Federation of Woman's Clubs, this Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Hostesses for the day are Miss Marie Massey, chairman, assisted by Mmes. E. W. Meadows, Harold Sayward, and A. P. Schnell.

Two new members, Mrs. John Hunt of Spring Valley and Mrs. Glen Hines of Lemon Grove will be welcomed.

'FASHIONS' TO BE VLM PTA THEME

Over all theme for the annual fashion show of the Vista La Mesa Parent-Teacher Association is a melodic one: "Fashions of Note." The event is scheduled for 7:45 p.m. tonight, April 12, in the school cafetorium.

A unique style presentation will be featured, in the modeling of hand tailored garments. The whole family will join the parade of fashions and apparel for all the family, made by mom's loving hands will be shown. Models will be members and in some instances, their entire families.

Isn't it fuuny how little value other people put on your time?

George Casteel is Wearing New Pin

George W. Casteel, well known and highly regarded realestater, is wearing a new pin, which he will show on request, and of which he is justly proud.

The pin is an expression of esteem, sent from the Masonic Lodge in his home town in Montana, and indicates 50 years' membership in the Blue Lodge.

The Montana lodge sent the pin to Lemon Grove Lodge for presentation, which was made at the last meeting.—D. H.

L. D. Fairbanks Injured in Headon Crash

L. D. Fairbanks, well known Spring Valley square dance enthusiast and operator of the Jan-do-Haven Nursery, is in Naval Hospital as a result of a head-on collision last week while he was enroute home from a Balboa Park round dance event. He is a Promenader.

The accident occurred on Federal Boulevard in the 6000 block at 10:30 p.m. A car headed west, driven by a sailor, William Ross of Arizona, plowed headlong into Fairbanks' car. Both cars were demolished. Fairbanks suffered severe head concussion and back injuries. The sailor's injuries are reported to be extensive also.

Mrs. Fairbanks said that a reckless driving charge had been lodged against the sailor and that police had clocked the driver at 75 miles per hour.

SECOND SALK SHOT

Washington—More than 1,000,000 youngsters have received their second Salk polio vaccine shots, with the south leading the way. All told, 6,500,000 first and second graders received a first shot and around 60 to 70 per cent of those children able to get a second shot have had it. A nationwide survey showed the number of polio fatalities has dropped 46 per cent below last year's level. In the key states supplying second shots, the decline has been 65 per cent.

'Sewing Machines Need Daily Care'

Sewing machines need daily care when spring sewing begins, says Delphine D. Wilson, home advisor, University of California.

A few minutes spent on the care of the machine, after use, prepares it for the next day's work. Keep brush, oil can, screw drivers, and cleaning cloths handy, advises Mrs. Wilson. After each day's use, slip back the slide plate or plates on the bed of the machine and brush off the lint that has gathered around the bobbin case and feed. Remove the lint and ravelings under the head. Place one drop of oil in each oil cup; then place a piece of cloth under the presser foot and drop the presser foot down on the cloth to relieve the tension on the presser foot spring.

Sewing machines need a thorough cleaning once or twice a year. An instruction booklet on cleaning sewing machines is available at the Agricultural Extension Service office, Building 1, 4005 Rosecrans. The free booklet is entitled "Take Care of Your Sewing Machine."

Farmer's Insurance Company Buys Building for Area Headquarters

The Farmers Insurance Co. has purchased the Long Building at 7559 Broadway, and will have an agency headquarters in Lemon Grove at that address.

Three agencies have combined and will serve their cilents here.

Ken Rister, who has been the Farmers' agent in Lemon Grove for five years, will be found at the new location after April 15. Ken Rister, who has had his office with G. W. Casteel at 7580, just across Broadway from the new quarters, will register voters 'til the 12th of April, which is the last day for registration.

Ralph R. Hughes moved from Valencia Park and Glen G. Early has moved from College avenue. They, together with Ken Rister, will form the agency group, and will rotate their time in the office.

The A. J. Long Co., former owners of the building, have moved to 3570 Olive street, corner of North Avenue.

The east half of the building will be rented, possibly to a drive-in eatery. Ken Rister says he can't think of a happier combination.

Samuel T. Loftin, district manager of Farmers Insurance Co., financed the purchase of the property at 7559 Broadway. He feels that Lemon Grove offers many advantages as a center of agencies for his company.

Revenue stamps of $25.85 indicate that $23,500 was paid for the property. Long is said to have paid $10,000 when he bought it a short time ago, and spent $2,000 in improvements. Just goes to show that Lemon Grove business property is good stuff to buy.

GROSSMONT PTA TO INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

The last Grossmont PTA meeting for this school year is Thursday, April 12, in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. The program will be most interesting with an installation of newly elected officers and two guest speakers. Mrs. Byron Netzley, Ninth District parliamentarian, will be the installing officer, installing Mrs. Gilbert Durham as president for 1956-57.

Speakers for the evening are to be Alfred E. Druebber, vocational counselor for the California State Employment Office, and Rex Ball, supervisor in the placement unit, also for the employment office. They will give a demonstration of the vocational aptitude test for high school seniors, using some parents from the audience as demonstrators. Mrs. Henry Herms, historian, will give the annual report on this year's PTA activities. Mrs. John L. Thompson, president, will be given a past-president's pin, as she concludes her term of office as president.

LOCAL MAN WINS UNIQUE SAVINGS BOND AWARD

Stephen Westover, 8349 Golden Avenue, Lemon Grove Savings Bonds chairman, last week was awarded a framed copy of President Dwight D. Eisenhower's "little prayer of my own" which the president made on January 20, 1953, just before the beginning of his inaugural address. The presentation was made by Stewart J. Moulin, Savings Bonds state director.

The prayer is an illuminated engraving and the frame is from the inaugural platform. The U. S. Treasury Department, under whose direction the Savings Bond program comes, acquired 6,800 board feet of lumber from the inaugural platform and which is being used to honor those who helped in the program.

Westover's award is "for achievement in the U. S. Savings Bond program—dedicated to the economic strength of the nation and the financial independence of its citizens." —L. G. Camera Foto

What & Why
Property Setbacks Make for Better Living

By WILLIS MILLER
County Director of Planning

Primary purpose of setbacks is to provide minimum front yards which, together with other requirements for minimum side and rear yards, assure essential light and air as well as some fire protection and privacy for buildings and their occupants. Setbacks also can facilitate the necessary eventual widening of substandard streets without the inconvenience and cost of cutting off the fronts of buildings.

In San Diego County, setbacks are used to assure some off-street parking in business and industrial zones. The 75-foot seback on Broadway in Lemon Grove, and on Palm Avenue in South Bay are cases in point. This is rather effective until street widening takes up all or part of the setback area. That has happened on Palm Avenue, and may happen on Broadway. When it does, the off-street parking space is entirely or partly lost. Clearly, therefore, San Diego County urgently needs a zoning ordinance requirement that a reasonable ratio of permanent off-street parking be provided. Without adequate off-street parking, business areas wither and die.

Building line setbacks are features of all zoning ordinances, and of some special ordinances. Such setbacks require that no building or structure be closer than a specified distance to an adjacent street.

The San Diego County zoning ordinance requires setbacks in all zone categories. The amount of setback distance varies from zone to zone, and ranges from as little as 50 feet from the centerline of the street on which the lot fronts to as much as 100 feet. The least requirement is in small-lot residential zones, the greatest requirement is in estate zones, and setbacks of 50, 60 and 75 feet from the centerline of the abutting street apply in various business, industrial and farm zones. Along a typical street with a right-of-way width of 60 feet, required "front yards" thus could vary in depth from 20 feet to 70 depending on how the abutting property is zoned.

Corner lots usually have a lesser setback from the side street—often 35 feet from the centerline of the side street, or the normal side yard as measured from the side property line, whichever is the greater. In many business and industrial zones, however, the same setback is required from all abutting streets.

In unzoned areas, special ordinances require building line setbacks along certain major highways, such as U. S. 395. Also, a specified setback may be an incidental condition of the "use permit" which must be secured before junk yards and a few other "objectionable" uses can be established. Otherwise no setbacks are required in unzoned portions of the county, and anyone there can build his house right up to the edge of the street if he chooses to do so.

Reductions from standard setbacks in zoned areas are specified in particular places where unusual conditions exist. For example, the ordinary 50-foot setback is not applied in certain blocks in Del Mar where the only street access is provided by a 20-foot alley. Also, variances reducing setbacks can be granted for lots which have such unusual features, like an extreme slope or a sharp gully, that some relief from standard setback requirements is essential to permit their normal use.

Setbacks serve important, useful purposes. They are among those provisions which help make San Diego County a safer, more attractive place to live and make a living. They have, and merit, an important place in the county planning program. However, setbacks are not a "cure-all." They are only one of the tools we can use to build better communities.

Local Demos Debate Candidates

A spirited but amicable debate highlighted the April meeting of the Lemon Grove Democratic Club, held Friday night at the Sumner Alperts', 7537 Cuyamaca. Debated were the relative merits as Democratic candidate for the presidency of the two front-running contenders, Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver. Two San Diego attorneys, members of the Professional Democratic Club, led the discussion: Hugo Fisher supporting Stevenson and Charles Karpinski Kefauver. Both viewpoints were ably presented, pertinent questions and comments by the local group rounding out an interesting program.

Mrs. H. J. Warner reported for the nominating committee, resulting in the election of the following officers: Sumner Alpert, president; Bryant Smith, vice president; Mrs. Leo Custeau, secretary; Ted Nachison, treasurer. Committee chairmen appointed include Mrs. H. J. Warner, membership; Mrs. Ted Nachison, telephone and social; Mrs. John Landesco, publicity.

The group's next meeting will be held on Friday, May 4, 8 p.m., place to be announced.

Gordon Shepard, Democratic candidate for congress in the 28th District, was introduced to a group of Lemon Grove folks at an informal morning coffee held last week in the home of Mrs. John Landesco, Mrs. H. J. Warner, co-hostess.

Mr. Shepard, a Garden Grove attorney, is seeking the office now held by James B. Utt, Republican, of Santa Ana, also in Orange County, which constitutes better than two thirds of the 28th Congressional District, the San Diego County portion accounting for the remainder. Candidate Shepard pointed out the various respects in which the interests of this are are not being represented in Washington. He will visit the area again in the near future.

Fly Situation Bad In Area

The problem of flies is bad in Spring Valley, but according to L. M. Davis of he health department, the problem is bad all over San Diego County.

The idea of the county spraying does not solve the problem, according to Davis. You have to get at the source of breeding. In a pamphlet issued by the county board of health it gives three ways of helping to rid flies: 1. Eliminate the breeding places; 2. Screen your home; 3. Your own spraying will help inside and out.

The pamphlet further states that flies breed and multiply in wet garbage, compost pits, moist piles of fertilizer, piles of decayed grass clippings, dog, cat and chicken droppings, decayed material in the bottom of garbage cans.

Mr. Davis said the health department will print up several thousand of the pamphlets, and suggested the Boy Scouts distribute them from door to door in the area. He suggested that a general meeting be called in Spring Valley, and said a speaker from the health department would come out with information on fly elimination.

An early meeting will probably take place in the Spring Valley Community Center Building. Verification of this will be published in next week's paper.

Allyn T. Cassell, Band Organizer, Dies

Rites for Allyn T. Cassell, 53, of 1681 Colfax street, were held last Friday. Burial was at Greenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Cassell organized the Al Cassell band in 1943. He was a member of the Musicians Union.

Survivors are his widow, Edna; two daughters, Diane and Sharon; his mother, Mrs. Margaret Cassell, San Diego; and two sisters, including Mrs. Una Granger, San Diego.

Court Teresa to Hold 'Come as You Are' Breakfasts

Members of the Court Teresa of Avila, No. 1580, Catholic Daughters of America, held their meeting Tuesday evening, April 3, at St. John of the Cross Auditorium, Lemon Grove. Mrs. F. J. Rosiak, grand regent, presiding.

The "Come as You Are" breakfasts for the court members are to be held in April, May and June. Mrs. D. J. Ferry will hostess the April breakfast.

The initiation of new members will be held Tuesday evening, April 17. Members to be initiated are Mmes: Dennis Walsh, William G. Holmes, M. E. West, Ray Stangl. Mrs. G. Dixon's membership is being transferred from Court Mother of Divine Grace, Ocean Beach.

The first annual Mass and Communion for the Catholic Diocese of San Diego will be held Sunday, May 6 at St. Joseph's Cathedral, with His Execllency, the Most Rev. Bishop Buddy officiating at the 9 o'clock Mass. All officers and members are urged to attend. Breakfast will follow at the La Fayette Hotel.

Proceeds of the silver drill were sent to the flood victims at Marysville.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. P. T. Coreao and her committee: Mmes. Albert Reiter, R. E. Brown and R. D. Schnautz.

THOMAS SAYS RED CROSS CHEST IS HALF FILLED

Completion of about 50% of Lemon Grove's quota in the current Red Cross fund-raising drive was reported on behalf of the fund chairman, Art Thomas, at the April board meeting of the local branch, E. E. Harris, the branch's vice chairman, presiding.

The production chairman, Marjorie Kegar, reported 205 hours turned in by the 12-member production unit, between February 15 and March 15; and Mrs. Frank Armstrong, motor service chairman, reported 155 hours, 50 calls, and 640 miles traveled as the March record of her group. The production unit, working in the Lemon Grove Woman's Club every Thursday morning, makes garments distributed by the county chapter. The motor service provides transportation for many persons — mostly children — who otherwise would be unable to obtain needed treatment at hospitals and elsewhere.

Those whose needs are served by our local branch of the Red Cross are fully aware of what is being done, month in and month out; yet, the volunteer work goes on comparatively unnoticed by the community, because it is done without fanfare.

On Saturday, April 10, Mrs. Frank Armstrong will be hostess at a luncheon in her 8230 Golden Avenue home, to honor Mrs. Johnny Walker, who is soon to leave the area. Mrs. Walker—"Fanny," as she is familiarly known—has been a valued member of the local Red Cross motor service, of which Mrs. Armstrong is chairman, and she is bound to be sorely missed in this as in other circles where she has been active.

Guests at the luncheon will include the remaining motor service members: Estellene Bellwood, Dorothy Denlinger, Grace DeMunn, Frankie Dudley, Dorothy Ferguson, Mary Henderson, Althea Hebert, Marge Kezar, Betty Taylor and Inez Wheeler.

Mrs. Taylor, Harry Hale to Be Soloists At PTA Musicale

San Miguel PTA will present their first Spring Musicale in the Lemon Grove Junior High auditorium Sunday, April 22 at 3 p.m.

Vocal soloists include Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, president-elect of Lemon Grove Junior High, and Harry M. Hale, exchange principal from Hawaii of San Miguel for Mr. Sutton.

Several chorus numbers will be given by the Lemon Grove Mothersingers under the direction of Carl Dewse and accompanied by Mrs. Dewse.

Instrumental soloists include Nancy Hill, State College student, violin, and Gary Curl, Helix High student, trumpet. Accompanists for the musicale are Kathy Pendergrass and Mrs. Joyce Cooper.

The public is cordially invited to attend.
